

BANKERS MEET IN NEWPORT.

Mr. James P. Coffin, Judge L. B. Poindexter, W. P. Jones, H. M. Kennerly and Hardy Kuykendall composed the Batesville delegation attending the meeting of Group 2, Arkansas Bankers Association, held in Newport Tuesday.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Kennerly, group chairman, and Messrs. Coffin and Jones made talks, the latter's subject being "Banking and Agriculture."

In its report of the meeting, the Newport Independent referred to Mr. Coffin as follows:

"Local and visiting bankers were most cordial in their greetings of the much loved veteran banker of Batesville, J. P. Coffin. Though advanced in years, Mr. Coffin has retained both his mental and physical alertness, and a happy talk from him at the meeting was greatly enjoyed. His friends, and they are legion, hope they may have the pleasure of meeting him upon many more similar occasions.
