

STATEHOUSE NOTES.

Governor Donaghey yesterday appointed Joseph H. Washum of Imboden a member of the Northeast Arkansas Tick Eradication Commission, to succeed L. F. Andrews of Imboden, who tendered his resignation recently.

A commission was issued yesterday by the governor to J. F. Saopach, who was elected mayor of Benton in the city election last Tuesday.

Governor Donaghey yesterday appointed L. B. Poindexter special probate judge in Lawrence county to preside in a case in which the regular judge is disqualified.

Clipped By:

powhatan2087
Tue, Jan 8, 2019